STIPENDIARY STEWARDS REPORT

ADDITIONAL STEWARDS REPORT

ALLAN SCOTT PARK MORPHETTVILLE, FRIDAY, 15 AUGUST 2008

The Stewards have inquired into the circumstances in which a South Australian based trainer was alleged to have made inappropriate comments against Betfair and a perceived relationship with jockey D. Tourneur. Additionally, Stewards questioned Mr. J. Berry, the Trainer of HAIL REIGN ORWHINE, and Trainer Mrs. S. Fisher, regarding the training of HAIL REIGN ORWHINE during its preparation.

Trainer Mrs. Fisher admitted contacting Betfair and on Tuesday, 29 July 2008 making comments to the Integrity Manager regarding Race 5 at Cheltenham Park on Saturday, 26 July 2008. She acknowledged that her perception of the function of a betting exchange was misconceived. Mrs. Fisher was cautioned against making statements when not fully informed that were possibly detrimental to the Thoroughbred Racing Industry.

It was established that subsequent to each start this preparation, HAIL REIGN ORWHINE had been worked by Mrs. Fisher from her Kangaroo Island stables but had returned to Mr. Berry's care prior to each start in accord with Rule LR.11.4. Mr. Berry was cautioned that in the terms of Rule LR.11.5, he had been required to obtain the permission of the Stewards for HAIL REIGN ORWHINE to be located away from his stables.

Stewards confirmed they were satisfied D. Tourneur had ridden HAIL REIGN ORWHINE at Cheltenham Park on Saturday, 26 July 2008 in accordance with his responsibilities under the Rules of Racing.
